We're moving into March...with increased momentum!

March will be a month that we will focus on Salvation...Holy Spirit Infilling...and Baptisms!

In February...we have read the Word, Fasted, and Prayed. We have cleansed ourselves for a move of God! We have studied and learned the REAL meaning of Grace...that it does not cover our sin...but gives us power to live an overcoming life above sin!

We, as Pastors, are so encouraged by the steps so many have taken in maturity! We are hearing your testimonies of digging deep, some that have never fasted before and are experiencing this "growth" for the first time. You have rearranged schedules to make Spiritual and team involvement a priority!

Some have said..."What about those that do not participate? Does that discourage you?" Admittedly, it is often hard to hear an incredible teaching, or experience a power in prayer service, that we know would have greatly helped someone not in attendance...but even God will not invade human will. We remain GREATLY encouraged by those that have made an active choice to grow and participate, support the Pastors requests for participation, and anything outside of that will not detour our focus! There are so many lives being changed, and so many in the incredible maturity process...no room for negativity. There is too much to come! We will continue to encourage, exhort, and "remove nest comfort", in our attempt to encourage "Flight". In this type of "growth"...what we are on the inside is revealed...and God can help each one with what we see in our individual selves. Our excuses are laid bare before God. We, as leaders, have attempted to do what God has asked...and we will continue to provide tools, teaching, experiences, worship, preaching, and time allotments for prayer and "team" meetings as God directs. More direct quotes of the week... "I so look forward to church every week!" "I am learning so much on Thursday nights!" "This fasting really creates weight loss!" Revival has a cost, and there are those that are willing to pay the price...and we are forever grateful for your sacrifice! Your lives will be changed dramatically!

March 21st...Baptism Sunday!

If you have never been baptized like those in the book of Acts...this is your time!

Thoughts For Reflection:

"Many are the afflictions of the righteous, But the Lord DELIVERS him out of them all." Psalms 34:19 What an incredible promise during life's difficult challenges...being 'delivered' does not always mean to be removed. Sometimes it's being changed and shaped through the process...delivered from our selfish perspective.

When you go the extra mile you are seldom delayed by a traffic jam.

How seriously do you take your life assignment?

Forgiveness does not change the past...it enlarges the future!
